

Elevating Voices of People with Disabilities in Healthcare: Example Resources and Practices

Title	Description	Author	Link
Disability Language Style Guide	Style guide for appropriate language usage for people with disabilities	National Center on Disability and Journalism	https://ncdj.org/style-guide/#
Getting the Care you Need: Guide for People with Disabilities	Booklet with steps and checklist for people with disabilities to manage their own healthcare	Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Office of Minority Health	https://www.cms.gov/files/document/getting-care-you-need-guide-people-disabilities.pdf
Practice Without Pressure	Mission: Helping people, especially those with disabilities, receive quality medical, dental and personal care with dignity and respect	Practice Without Pressure	https://www.practicewithoutpressure.com/
Practice Without Pressure	Videos how to prepare PWD for their medical encounters, including awareness for healthcare professionals	Practice Without Pressure	https://youtu.be/IU973mV1s4U
Technology for All	Teaching people with disabilities and their caregivers to use technology/internet	Technology for All	https://mytechforall.com/pa/
Tech Owl, Institute on Disabilities at Temple University	Provides resources to get assistive tech, explore assistive tech, and learn about assistive tech	Tech Owl, Institute on Disabilities at Temple University	https://techowlpa.org/
Organizational Support to Amplify the Voices of People With Disabilities	Organizational Support to Amplify the Voices of People With Disabilities	NACCHO - National Association of County and City Health Organizations	https://www.naccho.org/blog/articles/organizational-support-to-amplify-the-voices-of-people-with-disabilities
The Essential Elements of Local Public Health	The Essential Elements of Local Public Health	NACCHO - National Association of County and City Health Organizations	https://www.naccho.org/blog/essential-elements?subcategory[]=health-disability
A.L.L.Y. Model	A.L.L.Y. model on how you can increase disability inclusion and accessibility for all to improve the health, well-being, and participation of people with disabilities in your community.	CDC - Center for Disease Control and Prevention	https://www.cdc.gov/ncbddd/humandevelopment/become-a-disability-ALLY.html

Elevating Voices of People with Disabilities in Healthcare: Example Resources and Practices

Title	Description	Author	Link
Disability Language and Etiquette	This module provides an overview of "people first" language and discusses the difference between the terms "access and functional needs" and "people with disabilities."	Temple University	https://disabilities.temple.edu/programs-services/advocacy/emergency-preparedness/emergency-planners/inclusive-planning-modules/self-study-module-1-disability-language-and-etiquette
Plain Language	Resources, trainings, and contact information for plain language staff at each institute and center at NIH	National Institute on Health	https://www.nih.gov/institutes-nih/nih-office-director/office-communications-public-liaison/clear-communication/plain-language